献词

当金融股市风暴横扫亚太地区时，甚至最敏锐的观查家都对这突然出现的情况而感到震惊。造成经济混乱的原因是没人能对这广泛的危害做出适当的准备。颇具讽刺的是这股风暴是在世贸组织会议开幕仅半年之后吹到，而每个参家国都期望世界贸易将产生进一步的支持而达至繁荣。1998年即将来到，这场风暴也将逐渐平息，但大多数专家都认为，受影响的国家要从这场风暴中完全恢复过来，需要两年时间。

在这个世界上没有一个人(或国家)是在孤岛上生存的，它们总会知道周围所发生的事情和为什么会发生，因为现在的我们比任何历史时期更加互相依赖，或好或坏，对我们周边的影响最终也会影响到我们自己。

新加坡作为这世界上经济最开放的国家之一，比之这区域其它国家更加幸运。它的金融和股市还不算坏，比周边国家要好，这要归因于它严格的政策和实际策略，为这个国家保持和带来繁荣稳定。

我们深受新加坡经济回弹的鼓舞，因而我们确信今年的拍卖会将取得成功。过去的经验证明，拍卖品的质量是影响拍卖会成功的最重要因素。这之前另一个重点是我们的专业知识和良好信誉对拍卖会的影响。在本区域，作为拍卖先驱者，我们创意的发展了新加坡钱币拍卖会。通过过去十二年的记录，买卖双方都认为这是他们收藏品交易的最好方式。此外他们了解，这也保证了他们的古董钱币免受过去几年通货膨涨所带来的财产损失。

以往我们获得一系列日本、泰国、韩国、香港、马来西亚和印度的钱币，纸钞拍卖精品。而最另人激动和特别感兴趣的是来自中国的系列，自九十年代初，这些钱钞的价值都得到了充分的恢复，这个结果也是由于中国经济的良好表现。如今，珍贵稀少的中国金银币和纸钞在中国(包括全世界)都获得及好的价格充份的证明了这一点。

SINGAPORE COIN AUCTION

Foreword

When the currency and stock market storms visited Asia-Pacific, they swept in so suddenly that even the most perceptive observers were astonished. Nobody was prepared for the extensive damage that the turmoil caused. Ironically, these ill winds came barely half a year after the inaugural conference of the World Trade Organisation, after which every participating country was looking forward to the greater prosperity that a further boost in international trade would generate. As 1998 unfolds, the crisis has noticeably subsided, although many experts believe that it would be at least a couple of years before the affected countries could see full recovery from their wounds

In a world where no man (or country) is an island unto himself (or itself), it is always prudent to know what is happening to our neighbour and why - because we are now more interdependent on each other than at any other time in history, and what affects our neighbour will ultimately affect us, for better or worse.

Singapore, with one of the most open economies in the world, has been more fortunate than many other countries in the region. Its currency and stock market were not as badly battered as those of its neighbours. And this can be attributed to the prudent policies and practices implemented to bring about and maintain prosperity for its citizens.

We are encouraged by this resilience of the Singapore economy and we are confident this year's auction will be a success. Past experience has shown that a more crucial factor influencing an auctions outcome is the quality of the material. This is where our expertise and reputation come to the fore - we have created and developed the Singapore Coin Auction as the premier auction in the region. And buyers and sellers have for the past twelve years looked on this event as a good way to buy for and sell their collections. This aside, they also know that their numismatic possessions have protected them from the ravages of inflation of the past few years.

As in past years, we have obtained a very fine selection of Japanese, Thai, Korean, Hong Kong, Malaysian and Indian coins and notes. Of particular interest is the exciting section on China, whose issues have seen a healthy resurgence of attention since the early nineties - doubtless the result of the robust emergence of the Chinese economy. Proof of this is the fact that many rare gold and silver coins as well as bank notes from China (and those of the world too) have been quietly fetching extremely good prices.

We take this opportunity to welcome and thank our friends and associates for their kind support of this auction and sincerely hope that their brief sojourn in the Lion City is a pleasant one.

Four coins of this type, dated 1303 (3) and 1305 have come to light bearing the same legends as the brass Mahallaks issued by Amir Abdullah (AH1303-4; AD 1885-7). Harar was under Egyptian occupation between 1875 and 1885, when the fall of the Khedive's government led to the town being virtually under British protection for a short while until the latter decided to pass it to Abdullah, the son of the previous Amir. His rule and the independence of Harar ended in 1887 when Emperor Menelik's forces occupied the town. Under whose authority these coins were struck and whether they ever entered into circulation in Harar is not clear.
